Re: Applications of AT&T Inc. and Deutsche Telekom AG for Consent to Assign or Transfer
Control of Licenses and Authorizations – WT Docket No. 11-65 – Ex Parte
Communication

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On October 13, 2011, Mark Stachiw, Vice Chairman, Secretary & General Counsel of MetroPCS Communications, Inc. ("MetroPCS"), along with Carl W. Northrop and Michael Lazarus of Telecommunications Law Professionals PLLC ("TLP") and Jean Kiddoo of Bingham McCutchen LLP, met with Renata Hesse, Austin Schlick, Rick Kaplan, Paul de Sa, Patrick DeGraba, Tom Peters and Gregory Rosston of the FCC to discuss the above-referenced proceeding.

During the meeting, MetroPCS inquired about the status of, and the process going forward for, the Commission's review of the above-referenced AT&T/T-Mobile applications (the "Applications") in light of the Complaint filed against AT&T/T-Mobile by the Department of Justice (the "DOJ Complaint Proceeding"). MetroPCS stated that it thought the issuance of a Commission order designating the Applications for an administrative hearing before an Administrative Law Judge at this time would be premature, based on its view that such an order may (a) potentially interfere with the DOJ Complaint Proceeding; (b) subject third parties such as MetroPCS to additional burdens when they already have been subject to numerous federal, state and private party discovery requests and subpoenas related to the transaction and Applications; and (c) potentially reduce the flexibility of the Commission in dealing with such a complex transaction.
